

The day begins
With all the moments
Which make up life
An exquisite breeze
Caresses
Enchants
Because the earth is vast
Generous
The force of the soul
Infinite
Today yields other moments
Full
As those
Which marked the beginning
Those which defined
The joy in creating
These hands are
The ones which give form
To the wind's breath
Extraordinary echoes
Of the immense ocean
Swollen with power
Generous
For it also
Energy passes
From chaos to harmony
From harmony to chaos
The days are filled with amazement
The nights with dreams and desires
Then
All will be determined
In a precise moment
